DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the applicant's admitted of prior art (Figures 4 and 5) in view of Meinke et al.

Regarding claim 1, the applicant's admitted of prior art (Figures 4 and 5) shows a bearing unit comprising a rolling bearing and a magnetic bearing which supports a rotatable shaft in a non-contact condition, wherein the rolling bearing is arranged to be connected to the rotatable shaft for supporting the rotatable shaft upon rotation stoppage, the rolling bearing comprising a double row, angular ball bearing and provided on the side where thrust load is received or on the side where positioning in the axial direction is carried out, the double row, angular ball bearing having inner and outer races.

The applicant's admitted of prior art does not show one of the inner and outer races being an integral race installed on the side of the rotatable shaft with a radial clearance between the integral race and the shaft in the non-contact condition.

Meinke et al. show one of the inner and outer races being an integral race (27) installed on the side of the rotatable shaft with a radial clearance between the integral race and the shaft in the non-contact condition for the purpose of supporting the shaft in emergency.

Since the applicant's admitted of prior art and Meinke et al. are all from the same field of endeavor, the purpose disclosed by one inventor would have been recognized in the pertinent art of the others.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to make the angular ball bearing with inner and outer races and one of the inner and outer races as an integral race installed on the side of the rotatable shaft with a radial clearance between the integral race and the shaft in the non-contact condition as taught by Meinke et al. for the purpose discussed above.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
